

Dutch National Police Host TFO Training Course

The Dutch National Police hosted a two-day TFO course conducted by Phil Cady of Tactical Flying at the Queen Maxima Barracks located at Amsterdam Schiphol Airport. Course organizer Harald Brink reported that there were attendees not only from The Netherlands, but from Denmark, Sweden, Germany, Belgium, Ireland, Switzerland and Spain as well. Dutch attendees included military police TFOs, K9 handlers, dispatchers and the Police UAV unit. This event follows on the heels of another successful police aviation event for European airborne law enforcement units, PAvCon 2022, which was held in Weiner Neustadt, Austria, June 7-8.

