The APSA Flight Safety Recognition Program honors flight crew members who have significant accident and violation free public safety mission flight hours.

Bronze Level	1,500 Hours
Silver Level	2,500 Hours
Gold Level	5,000 Hours
Platinum Level	10,000 Hours

Individual APSA members, employed or appointed by a public safety agency and whose duties include assignment as aircrew are allowed to use all time flown towards receiving APSA Flight Safety Recognition.

Should you question an accident or violation, use the FAR guidelines. Any accident or violation, regardless of nature or circumstances, will disqualify the candidate. Recognition requirements do not include military flight time.

To apply, complete an application form and return it to the APSA home office marked "Attention: APSA Safety Committee," or email application to Crystal Clark at cclark@publicsafetyaviation.org. To qualify, you must be a member of APSA in good standing.

Qualified members will receive an 8½" x 11" certificate suitable for framing.

You may order a walnut plaque with recognition level engraved plate for $55.00 (plus shipping; approximately $15 within the US or $35 International) payable to APSA. Certificates/Plaques will be sent to the candidate's chief pilot or supervisor for presentation.
